

Brad Watson Promoted to Branch Officer

James G. Rakes, Chairman, President and CEO of National Bank, is pleased to announce the promotion of Brad Watson to Branch Officer. Watson currently manages the bank's office located at 605 East Stuart Drive in Galax.

Watson began his career at National Bank in 2006 as Assistant Manager of the Galax Office. In 2007 he was promoted to Office Manager. Watson is a graduate of Old Dominion University with a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies. He is a member of Coal Creek Community Church and resides in Galax with wife Bobbie and son Luke.

National Bank, founded in Blacksburg in 1891, operates 26 offices throughout Southwest Virginia. The bank is a subsidiary of National Bankshares, Inc., a Blacksburg-based financial holding company with over $935 million in assets. National Bankshares, Inc. also operates National Bankshares Financial Services, Inc., which does business as National Bankshares Insurance Services and National Bankshares Investment Services.

Visit the company's web site at www.nbbank.com for the latest news on National Bank.

For more information contact:

Nancy Bowman
Marketing
(540) 951-6332