Who we are

Who is providing this notice	The National Bank of Blacksburg (National Bank)
-------------------------------------	---

What we do

How does National Bank of Blacksburg (National Bank) protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information and we limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.

How does National Bank of Blacksburg (National Bank) collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Apply for a loan or apply for financing
- Open an account or use your credit or debit card
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account

We may also collect information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account - unless you tell us otherwise.
